BRITISH EMPIRE LEPROSY RELIEF ASSOCIATION

Patron: H.M THE QUEEN

President The Rt Hon The Earl of Halifax, K G , G C S I , G C I E.

Chairman Sir Shenton Thomas, G C M G., O.B E

The scourge of LEPROSY need not exist in the Commonwealth. Commenting on the outcome of research by the British Empire Leprosy Relief Association, The Lancet says: "Leprosy may be the first of the great infectious diseases to be brought under control." An official report to the UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL says of the British Empire Leprosy Relief Association's work that it is an example of human as well as medical achievement worthy of the highest commendation.

LEPROSY CAN NOW BE CURED

and the British Empire Leprosy Relief Association is the only Medical Society, within the Empire, which is devoted solely to the cause of leprosy control. Our work is entirely voluntary and dependent upon the goodwill of all British subjects within the Empire.

You can help us by:

1. Donations or Subscriptions.
2. Legacies or Deed of Covenant subscriptions. Forms will be willingly supplied on request.

Address your gift to the Hon. Treasurer:

TO PROVIDE FISH for our tables, deep sea fishermen accept peace-time dangers that most men meet only in emergencies And in war-time, who but the deep sea fisherman mans most of the minesweepers? Truly we owe him and his family much in return!

Supporters of the Deep Sea Mission think so, for their gifts help pay for a chain of fine fishermen's hostels in fishing ports all round our coasts The devoted staffs of these hostels carry out continuous evangelistic work among the fisherfolk

The Mission is not state-aided at all—it depends on the personal voluntary help of Christians everywhere Won't you help by sending a donation to the General Secretary—

VALENTINE HEYWOOD

A readable and comprehensive discussion of the use and abuse of titles in the peerage, knightage, Privy Council, justiciary and the churches, by the Managing Editor of the Sunday Times "An excellent grammar on the subject Although I thought that I knew the language almost like a native, I find from Mr Heywood that there are many errors that I either fail to notice or might even commit myself."

There's no place like Home

Perhaps the loveliest word in the English language is "home", but the hard fact remains that there are thousands of children in this country who have no real home For them must be provided the next best thing—a substitute Home. Even though this must be spelt with a capital "H" it need not stand for institutionalism.

The National Children's Home cares for over 3,000 boys and girls, but it treats them as individuals and helps them to feel that the "Home" is their home Such worth-while work costs money and an earnest appeal for continued support.

Legacies are specially solicited

SOCIETY FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF LADIES IN REDUCED CIRCUMSTANCES

(PATRON HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN) Founded by MISS SMALLWOOD

Please remember our many poor elderly ladies in need

FOR OVER SIXTY NINE YEARS we have waged War against poverty and distress, and helped many poor ladies who, alas, have neither strength nor skill to earn their own living.

We may mention that a LEGACY would be most useful, or a DONATION to our GENERAL, SPECIAL, COAL, or SHILLING FUND

There is no class, perhaps, whose condition calls for stronger sympathy, than that of gentlewomen who have fallen on hard times, and who bear their sufferings in silence, many ill and lonely.

THE ANIMAL DEFENCE AND ANTI-VIVISECTION SOCIETY

15, ST. JAMES'S PLACE, ST. JAMES'S STREET, LONDON, S.W.1

President · MISS L. LIND-AF-HAGEBY

The Society works strenuously to suppress cruelty in every form, and to create a spirit of mercy and justice in the treatment of animals. The Society carries on vigorous campaigns to reform the methods of slaughter and transport, to end the horrors of the steel-trap and the fur traffic, to expose the cruelties of the bull fight, spectacles and sports which are based on the suffering of animals, to abolish vivisection, and generally to awaken feeling and understanding in regard to the treatment of animals

The Society founded in 1928 the International Humanitarian Bureau in Geneva, with which are associated humane organisations throughout the world It stands for the principle that the cause of humanity to animals is not a side issue, but a vital part of civilisation and social development. It has freely distributed appliances and instruments for the humane treatment of animals Active campaigns for reform are carried out by means of meetings, lectures, extensive distribution of publications, Press publicity, international congresses, exhibitions, demonstrations, etc

Amongst other activities the Society built a Model Humane Abattoir, organised many demonstrations of humane slaughter in this and other countries, built Pavilion Zoophilia at the Paris Exhibition in 1937 (in conjunction with the "Association Française") Awarded Grand Prix Established veterinary hospitals in France under the authority of the French War Office during the first world war, maintained an Evacuation of Animals Service and a Veterinary Post for Westminster during the second war, organised sections showing services of animals to man in Lord Mayor's processions 1929 and 1930

Nina Hamilton Memorial Fellowship

Ferne Animal Sanctuary (Shaftesbury, Dorset) founded at the beginning of the last war by the late Nina, Duchess of Hamilton and Brandon, for many years Chairman of the Society, is being maintained by the Society This work for the relief of suffering is entirely charitable, voluntary gifts are gratefully received There is care and asylum for stray and abandoned dogs and cats, for whom good homes are found whenever possible Old horses and other animals have also found asylum at the Sanctuary which by its activities has rendered great service to Service men and women Plans are made for further development of Memorial activities at Ferne Estate as a Centre of humanitarian work the institution of a College to foster right understanding and humane treatment of animals in housing, transport, markets, slaughter, etc

An "Animals in our Life" Exhibition is open at London Headquarters, the object of which is to show the unity of life and the dependence of Man on the Animals There are special sections devoted to the many aspects of practical protection of animals from cruelty and ruthless exploitation, there are others relating to Animals in Biology, Literature, and Religion
