Statutes how made.

27. (1) The first Statutes shall be those set out in the Schedule.

(2) The Statutes may be amended, repealed or added to by Statutes made by the Court in the manner hereinafter appearing.

(3) The Executive Council may propose to the Court the draft of any Statute, to be passed by the Court. Such draft shall be considered by the Court at its next meeting. The Court may approve such draft and pass the Statute, or may reject it or return it to the Executive Council for re-consideration, either in whole or in part, together with any amendments which the Court may suggest.

(4) Where

(4) Where any Statute has been passed or a draft of a Statute has been rejected by the Court, it shall be submitted to the Chancellor, who may refer the Statute or draft back to the Court for further consideration or, in the case of a Statute passed by the Court, assent thereto or withhold his assent. A Statute passed by the Court shall have no validity until it has been assented to by the Chancellor.

(5) The Executive Council shall not propose the draft of any Statute affecting the status, powers or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion upon the proposal. Any opinion so expressed shall be in writing and shall be considered by the Court, and shall be submitted to the Chancellor.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no Statute shall be made affecting the proportion or method of Muhammadan representation on the Court, the Executive Council or the Academic Council, save with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

36. The annual report of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Executive Council, and shall be submitted to the Court on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, and shall be considered by the Court at its annual meeting. The Court may pass resolutions thereon and communicate the same to the Executive Council which shall take such action thereon as it thinks fit.

Annual accounts.

37. (1) The annual accounts and balance-sheet of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Executive Council, and shall be submitted to the Local Government for the purposes of audit.

(2) The

(2) The accounts when audited shall be published by the Executive Council in the Calcutta Gazette, and copies thereof shall, together with copies of the audit report, if any, be submitted to the Court, to the Local Government and to the Governor-General in Council. The Executive Council shall also submit to the Court, on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, a statement of the financial estimates for the ensuing year.

(3) The annual accounts and the financial estimates shall be considered by the Court at its annual meeting, and the Court may pass resolutions thereon and communicate the same to the Executive Council which shall take such action thereon as it thinks fit.

Supplementary Provisions.

38. The Chancellor shall, with the concurrence of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Executive Council for the time being in India, have power to remove the name of any person from the register of registered graduates.

Removal of names of registered graduates.

39. If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Disputes as to constitution of University authorities and bodies.

40. 1) An appeal may be made by petition to the Chancellor, against the order of any officer or authority of the University affecting any class of persons in the University. The Chancellor shall send a copy of any such petition to the officer or authority concerned, and shall give such officer or authority an opportunity to show cause why the appeal should not be entertained.

Appeals to Chancellor.

(2) The Chancellor may reject any such appeal or may, if he thinks fit, appoint a commission of persons, not being officers of the University or members of any authority thereof, to inquire inquire into the matter and report to him thereon. On receipt of the commission's report, the Chancellor shall send a copy thereof to the Executive Council. The Executive Council shall take such report into consideration and shall, within three months of the receipt thereof, pass a resolution thereon which shall be communicated to the Chancellor.

(3) A commission appointed under sub-section (2) may require any officer or authority of the University to furnish it with any papers or information which are, in the opinion of the commission, relevant to the matter under inquiry, and such officer or authority shall be bound to comply with such requisition.

Constitution
mittees.

41. Where any authority of the University is given power by this Act or the Statutes to appoint committees, such committees shall, unless otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons (if any) as the authority in each case may think fit.

Filling of ca-
cies.

42. All casual vacancies among the members (other than ex-officio members) of any authority or other body of the University shall be filled as soon as conveniently may be by the person or body who appointed, elected or co-opted the member whose place has become vacant, and the person appointed, elected or co-opted to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

Proceedings of University authorities and bodies not invalidated by vacancies.

43. No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or vacancies among its members.

Conditions of service.

44. (1) Every salaried officer and teacher of the University shall be appointed on a written contract. The contract shall be lodged with the Registrar of the University, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the officer or teacher concerned.

(2) Any

(2) Any member of the public services in India whom it is proposed to appoint to a post in the University shall, subject to the approval of such appointment by the Government, have the option—

- (i) of having his services lent to the University for a specified period and remaining liable to recall to Government service at the discretion of the Government at the end of that period ; or
- (ii) of resigning Government service on entering the service of the University.

45. Any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and any officer or teacher of the University shall, on the request of the officer or teacher concerned, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Executive Council, one member nominated by the officer or teacher concerned, and an umpire appointed by the Chancellor. The decision of the Tribunal shall be final, and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of the matters decided by the Tribunal. Every such arbitration shall be subject to the provisions of the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

Tribunal of Arbitration.

IX of 1899.

46. (1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers, clerical staff and servants a pension or provident fund in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

Pension or provident fund.

(2) Where such a pension or provident fund has been so constituted, the Governor-General in Council may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Provident Funds Act, 1897, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that the provisions of the said Act shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

IX of 1897.

47. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the powers of the University conferred by or under Territorial exercise of powers.

this Act shall not extend beyond a radius of five miles from the Convocation Hall of the University. Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, no educational institution beyond that limit shall be associated with or admitted to any privileges of the University, and no educational institution within that limit shall be associated in any way with or be admitted to any privileges of any other University incorporated by law in British India, and any such privileges granted by any such other University to any educational institution within that limit prior to the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be withdrawn on the commencement of this Act :

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any agricultural or other technical institution established or maintained in connection with the University with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council :

Provided, further, that it shall be lawful for any Faculty, other than the Faculties of Arts and Science, to assemble at Calcutta whenever, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, such a course is necessary.

Transitory Provisions.

of courses for students at Dacca
Colleges.

48. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Ordinances, any student of the Dacca College, the Dacca Law College, the Dacca Training College, or the Jagannath College at Dacca who immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, was studying for any examination of the Calcutta University higher than the Intermediate Examination shall be permitted to complete his course in preparation therefor, and the University shall provide for such students instruction and examinations in accordance with the Prospectus of Studies of the Calcutta University.

Appointment of first Vice Chancellor.

49. The first Vice-Chancellor may be appointed at any time after the passing of this Act. Such appointment shall, notwithstanding anything contained contained in sub-section (1) of section 10, be made by the Governor-General in Council for such term and on such conditions as he thinks fit.

50. (1) At any time after the passing of this Act and until such time as the authorities of the University shall have been duly constituted—

First appointments of University staff.

- (a) the Treasurer may be appointed by the Governor of Bengal ;
- (b) any other officers of the University may be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor with the previous sanction of the Governor of Bengal ;
- (c) teachers of the University shall be appointed by the Governor of Bengal after considering the recommendations of an Advisory Committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, and such other person or persons, if any, as the Governor of Bengal thinks fit to associate with them.

(2) Any appointment made under sub-section (1) shall be for such period and on such conditions as the appointing authority thinks fit :

Provided that no such appointment shall be made until financial provision has been made therefor by the Local Government or otherwise.

51. At any time after the passing of this Act, the Vice-Chancellor may, with the previous approval of the Chancellor and subject to the provision of funds by the Local Government or otherwise, take such action, consistent so far as may be with the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, as he may think necessary for the purpose of bringing the University into being, and for that purpose may exercise any power which by this Act or the Statutes is to be conferred on any officer or authority of the University.

Extraordinary powers of the Vice-Chancellor.

THE COURT

Regulation.

1. The Annual Meeting of the Court shall ordinarily be held in the third week of January in each year.

2. A second meeting of the Court shall be held at a date between July 1st and September 30th to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor.

3. At the annual meeting of the Court the Treasurer shall present the budget for the ensuing financial year, and representatives of the Court shall be elected to such Councils, Committees and Boards as include representatives of the Court.

4. If both the Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor are absent from any meeting the members present shall elect a Chairman for the meeting.

5. The Vice-Chancellor may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall upon a requisition in writing signed by not less than thirty members of the Court, convene a special meeting of the Court.

Act XVIII
1900, Section
17 (2).

6. At meetings convened on requisition by members, business other than that in respect of which the requisition was made may be transacted.

7. Notice in writing of an Annual Meeting of the Court shall be despatched to all members of the Court not later than the 15th day before the meeting. Notice of a special meeting shall be despatched to all members in writing not later than the 7th day before the meeting.

Notice of meeting and
of business.

8. An agenda paper for each meeting of the Court shall be despatched to members not later than the 7th day before the meeting.

In addition to the business on this agenda paper, no business shall be transacted at a meeting unless with the consent of the Chairman of the meeting and unless permission is given to introduce it by the vote of two-thirds of the members present.

9. Notice of a motion or resolution to be moved at the Annual Meeting of the Court must be in the hands of the Registrar not less than ten days before the meeting. Notice of an amendment to a motion or resolution of which notice has been given must be in the hands of the Registrar at least three days before the annual meeting of the Court at which the motion or resolution is to be moved.

Provided that all questions as to whether proper notice of a motion or of an amendment has been given shall be decided by the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and that the Chairman may in his discretion relax such regulations in cases where members have been debarred by distance or any other reason which the Chairman shall regard as adequate from giving the full notice required by the regulations.

10. No motion or resolution of which due notice has not been given may be moved at a meeting of the Court except :—

- (1) To adjourn the debate ;
- (2) To adjourn the meeting ;
- (3) To dissolve the meeting ;
- (4) To change the order of business ;
- (5) To refer any matter to any authority of the University ;
- (6) To pass to the next item of business ;
- (7) To appoint a committee ;
- (8) To resolve the meeting into a committee ;
- (9) That the question be now put.

There shall be no speeches in moving motions under headings (1), (2), (6) and (9).

Motions under headings 3, (4) and (8) above shall only be moved with the previous consent of the Chairman.

11. No amendment of which due notice has not been given shall be moved to a motion or resolution before a meeting of the Court unless—

- (1) the Chairman rules it to be in order as arising out of the debate, and

- (2) permission to move the amendment is given by a majority of the members present.

12. Twenty-five members of the Court shall form a quorum.

13. The Chairman at a meeting of the Court shall have a vote and a casting vote.

14. If a quorum is not present fifteen minutes after the time advertised for a meeting of the Court, there shall be no meeting. If, in the course of a meeting, any member calls attention to the fact that a quorum is no longer present, a bell shall be rung, and if, within two minutes of the ringing of the bell, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall dissolve.

RULES OF DEBATE.

15. Every motion shall be affirmative in form, and shall begin with the word "that". Motions,

16. Every motion at a meeting must be seconded, otherwise it shall drop. The seconder of a motion may reserve his speech with the permission of the Chairman.

17. When a motion has been seconded, it shall be stated from the chair, unless it be ruled out of order.

18. When the motion has been thus stated, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved either in the affirmative or in the negative or as proposed to be varied by way of amendment. When no member rises to speak to the motion, the Chairman shall proceed to put the question to the vote in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

19. Not more than one motion and one amendment thereto shall be placed before the meeting at the same time.

20. A motion once disposed of shall not be again brought forward at the same meeting, or at any adjournment thereof. A motion substantially identical in part with one already disposed of may be brought forward with the omission of such part.

Amendments.

21. Any proposal before the meeting may be amended (a) by leaving out a word or words ; (b) by leaving out a word or words in order to add or insert some other word or words ; (c) by adding or inserting a word or words

When the amendment is of the first kind, the form in which it will be proposed and handed to the chair will be, "That the words [mentioning them] be left out of the question."

When the amendment is of the second kind, the form will be, "That the words [mentioning them] be left out of the question, in order to add (or insert) the words [mentioning them]."

When the amendment is of the third kind the form will be, "That the words [mentioning them] be added or (inserted)."

22. No amendment shall be proposed which would in effect constitute a direct negative to the original motion.

23. Every amendment must be relevant to the motion upon which it is moved.

24. No amendment shall be proposed which substantially raises a question already disposed of by the meeting, or which is inconsistent with any resolution already passed by it

25. An amendment, the substance of which has been disposed of in part, may be modified by its proposer so as to retain only the part not so disposed of.

26. The order in which amendments of which previous notice has been given are to be brought forward shall be determined by the Chairman.

27. An amendment must be seconded in the same way as a motion ; otherwise it shall drop. A seconder of an amendment may reserve his speech with the permission of the Chairman.

28. When an amendment has been moved and seconded, it shall unless ruled out of order, be stated from the Chair.

29. When the Chairman has ascertained that no other member entitled to address the meeting desires to speak, the mover of the original resolution may reply upon the whole debate. But the mover of an amendment, or of a motion for dissolution or adjournment, has no right of reply.

30. No member shall speak to the question after the mover has entered on his reply.

31. When the debate is concluded, the Chairman shall, after summing up, if he so desires, put the question to the vote thus :

If there is no amendment, the Chairmn shall state the motion and take the vote of the meeting.

If there is an amendment, the Chairman shall state the motion and the amendment and take the vote of the meeting.

The votes of the members present in the meeting shall then be taken on the amendment by a show of hands.

32. If an amendment is negatived, the original motion shall be again stated from the chair, and subject to the foregoing regulations, any other amendment which is in order may then be proposed thereto.

33. If an amendment is carried, the motion, as amended shall be stated from the chair and may then be debated as a substantive question, to which the further amendments to the original motion which are in order and so far as they shall be applicable may be proposed, subject to the foregoing regulations, and such further amendments shall be disposed of in the same manner as the original amendment. When all the amendments have been thus dealt with the Chairman shall take the vote of the meeting on the motion as amended as the substantive resolution

34. A motion "That this meeting be now dissolved" or "That this meeting be now adjourned to (some specified date and hour)" may be moved at any time as a distinct question but not as an amendment, nor so as to interrupt a speech. If a motion for dissolution is carried, the business before

the meeting shall drop. If a motion for adjournment is carried, the meeting shall be adjourned, and the business shall be resumed at the adjourned meeting.

35. A motion "That the debate be now adjourned to (some specified date and hour)" may be moved in the like manner, and if it be carried shall have the effect of postponing the debate on the question under consideration till the date and hour specified, and the other items on the agenda paper shall be proceeded with. If the motion be negatived, the debate shall be resumed.

36. No amendment shall be moved to a motion under either of the two last preceding regulations, except one for substituting a different date and hour for that to which it is proposed to adjourn the meeting or debate, or a motion under Regulation 39 below.

37. A meeting or a debate renewed or continued after an adjournment is to be deemed one with that preceding the adjournment.

38. A motion "That the meeting pass to the next business on the agenda paper" or "that the question be now put" may be made at any time, in like manner and subject to the same rules as one for adjournment. If such a motion be carried, the motion under consideration and the amendment thereon, if any, shall drop.

39. No motion that the meeting be dissolved or that the meeting be adjourned or that the debate be adjourned or that the question be now put or that the meeting pass to the next business, shall, except by leave of the meeting, be moved or seconded by any member who has spoken to the motion or amendment than before the meeting, or who during the discussion of such motion or amendment has already made one of the aforesaid motions. Any such motion shall take precedence of any question that may be before the meeting, and, if not withdrawn, must be disposed of before such question.

40. When a motion of the class contemplated in the last preceding regulation has been brought forward and negatived, no other motion of that class shall be brought forward until after the lapse of what the Chairman shall deem a reasonable time ; nor shall a debate be allowed on such second or subsequent motion except with the permission of the Chairman.

41. The member who first rises to speak at the conclusion of a speech has the right to be heard. When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall decide who shall speak first.

Miscellaneous.

42. Except as hereinafter provided, a member who has spoken to a motion or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such motion or amendment.

43. In so far as the question raised by an amendment is one on which he has not yet spoken, any member may speak to that question, though he has spoken to the original question or a previous amendment.

44. No member, except with the permission of the Chairman and of the meeting, shall speak for more than fifteen minutes when proposing a motion or amendment, or for more than ten minutes when seconding or speaking to a motion or amendment, or when replying. In all cases further permission from the Court shall be required at intervals of ten minutes for the continuation of a speech.

45. It shall be open to the Court under special circumstances and by a special vote to reduce the time-limits specified in Regulation 44.

46. The Chairman may at any stage in the proceedings, at his own discretion or at the request of a member, explain the scope and effect of the motion or amendment which is before the meeting. He may also at the conclusion of a debate sum up the debate if he so desires.

47. Proposals relating to the conferring of honorary degrees, votes of thanks, messages of congratulation or condolence, addresses, and other matters of a like nature may be moved from the chair.

48. If the Chairman desires to take an active part in a debate, he shall vacate the chair until the vote on that debate shall have been taken. During such time the chair shall be taken by a member present nominated by the Chairman who has not already taken part in the debate and who waives his right to do so. The acting Chairman shall, during the debate in question, exercise all the rights of the Chairman.

49. Any member may with the permission of the Chairman, rise, even while another is speaking, to explain any expression used by himself which may have been misunderstood by the speaker, but he shall confine himself strictly to such explanation.

50. Any member may call the Chairman's attention to a point of order even while another member is addressing the meeting, but no speech shall be made on such point of order.

51. The Chairman shall be the sole judge on any point of order, and may call any member to order, and may, if necessary, dissolve the meeting, or adjourn it to some hour on the same or the following day.

52. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by permission of the Chairman by any member who has given notice of such motion or amendment, but any other member may before the meeting passes on to the next business move the same motion or amendment in his place.

53. Any motion or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from a meeting may be brought forward by any other member.

Voting.

54. On putting any question to the vote, the Chairman shall call for an indication of the opinion of the Court by a show of hands in the affirmative and negative, and shall declare the result thereof according to his opinion.

Any six members may then demand a division except on a motion of the kind contemplated in Regulations 35, 38 and 39. The Chairman shall thereupon give such directions for effecting the division as he shall consider expedient and shall nominate scrutineers to count the votes. The names of the members who vote for or against the motion, or decline to vote, shall be recorded.

55. If no division is demanded, any member shall have the right to dissent and to have the fact of his dissent recorded, provided such dissent be announced as soon as the Chairman shall have declared the result of the voting.

56. The Court may, when it thinks fit, appoint a committee consisting of any number of its members, or it may with the consent of the Chairman, resolve itself into committee for the consideration of business duly brought before it. Committees.

57. A motion for the appointment of a committee on a subject under debate or for the resolution of the meeting into a committee, may be made by any member at any time, and without the notice required by regulation 9.

58. A motion for the appointment of a committee must define the purpose for which the committee is to serve and the number of members to compose it. Amendments for enlarging or restricting the operations of a committee or for enlarging or restricting the number may be made without previous notice. If the motion is carried, the member moving shall name the persons whom he wishes to form the committee. Amendments may be made proposing other names. A ballot shall then be taken, if necessary, and the requisite number appointed from those who obtain the largest number of votes.

59. The quorum for a committee of the whole Court shall be the same as that provided for the meetings of the Court; the quorum for a committee appointed by the Court shall be determined at the time of appointment and shall be not less than a majority of the members appointed.

60. The Chairman of a committee of the whole Court shall be the same as for a meeting of the Court; the Chairman of a committee appointed by the Court shall be appointed by the Court at the time of the appointment of the committee.

In committee the proceedings shall be governed by the regulations framed for debate, which, however, may be relaxed at the discretion of the Chairman.

61. The resolutions by the Court passed in committee shall be embodied in a report prepared by the Registrar and signed by the Chairman, but shall not become final until they have been confirmed by the Court at a subsequent meeting.

62. The resolutions of a committee appointed by the Court shall be embodied in a report prepared by the Registrar or by a member of the committee, which report shall be laid before the committee for adoption or amendment. The report, duly signed by the members of the committee, with notes of dissent, if any, shall be presented to the Court at its next meeting, subject to the provisions of Regulation 8 respecting notice.

Elections.

63. In all cases of election, other than those specifically provided for, the candidates shall be proposed and seconded. If no more candidates are nominated than there are vacancies to be filled, the Chairman shall declare those candidates to be elected. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies a decision shall be obtained by proportionate voting, the voters stating on the ballot paper the names of the candidates they desire to vote for in order of preference.

Protests.

64. Any member of the Court intending to protest against a resolution of the Court shall give notice of his intention to the Registrar within a week from the date of the issue of the minutes of the meeting at which the resolution was passed, and within one week thereafter lodge his protest with the Registrar. The Registrar shall thereupon forward the protest to the Chairman of the meeting and request him to nominate three members to form a committee to prepare a memorandum in support of the resolution, and the committee so nominated shall frame the memorandum accordingly. The Registrar shall then cause the protest and memorandum to be printed and circulated to each member of the Court ; they shall also be laid on the table at the next meeting of the Court, and recorded in the minutes thereof.

If the protest relates to a matter the final decision of which rests with the Chancellor or with the Governor-General in Council, the Registrar shall further submit the protest and memorandum, together with a copy of the Resolution, to the Chancellor or to the Governor-General in Council, as the case may be, for his consideration and orders.

If a protest has been lodged with the Registrar with reference to a resolution which requires the confirmation of the Chancellor or of the Governor-General in Council, the resolution shall not be sent up for confirmation except with the protest and the memorandum.

65. No matter which has been decided by the Court shall, within a period of twelve months, be reconsidered, except at a special meeting of the Court convened for the purpose upon the requisition of thirty members and unless three-fourths of the members present at such meeting vote in favour of a reconsideration.

Reconsiderations.

66. Within seven days after a meeting of the Court, a draft of the minutes of such meeting shall be submitted by the Registrar to the Chairman and attested by him. The minutes shall then be printed and circulated to all members of the Court, and such of them as were present shall, within a fortnight of the issue of the minutes, communicate to the Registrar any exceptions they may take to the correctness thereof. The minutes and the exceptions taken, if any, shall be laid before the next meeting of the Court, and the minutes in their final form shall then be confirmed. Once every twelve months, or at such other intervals as the Court shall direct, the Executive Council shall cause the minutes of the meetings of the Court to be printed and a copy thereof to be forwarded to each member.

Minutes.

67. In any case not provided for by these regulations, the Chairman shall give a ruling as to procedure on the principles already laid down.

General.

68. Representatives of the Press and visitors may be admitted to meetings of the Court, provided they have obtained the permission of the Registrar.

CHAPTER I A.

Ordinances.

ORDINANCES RELATING TO THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE COURT BY REGISTERED GRADUATES.

1. Once every year, on such date as may be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, there shall be an election of members of the Court by the registered graduates of the University, to fill up such vacancies as shall have occurred during the year among the members elected by those graduates.

2. Only persons whose names are on the register of registered graduates at the date fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for the issue of voting papers shall be entitled to vote for the election.

3. Intimation of the date fixed for the election shall be sent to Registered Graduates at least thirty days before such date. The register of graduates will thereupon be closed until the date of the election and no new graduates will be registered.

4. Any registered graduate may propose the name of any other registered graduate for election as a member of the Court by sending to the Registrar at least twenty one days before the date fixed for election the name of the candidate proposed and a brief statement of his qualifications. The Registrar shall cause a list of the nominees together with the statement of the qualifications to be printed and circulated among registered graduates not less than fifteen days before the election.

5. The voting shall be by means of voting papers signed and attested as hereinafter provided.

6. The voting papers will be issued by the Registrar in such form as the Executive Council may from time to time determine and each graduate shall mark on it the names of the candidates for whom he votes and sign his own name at the bottom. His signature must be attested by a member of the Court or of the Executive Council or of the Academic Council or by the Registrar or by a Magistrate or Judicial Officer.

7. Every graduate shall have one vote for each vacancy but he shall not have the right to record more than one vote in favour of one candidate. He may, if he so chooses, withhold one or more of his votes.

8. If any candidate for election is proved to have secured a vote by improper means or if any corrupt practice in respect of his election is proved, his name shall forthwith be removed from the list of candidates, and he shall not be eligible for election in that year or, if he has already been elected, the Vice-Chancellor shall cancel his election and order a fresh election.

9. When a candidate has been elected, any registered graduate may challenge the election on the ground stated in regulation 8 above or on any other ground. Written objections against the election must be filed with the Registrar within thirty days of the election.

10. On receipt of any objection under ordinance 9 above the Vice-Chancellor shall nominate a Board consisting of two members of the Court and two members of the Executive Council, with himself as President, to enquire into the allegations, and the decision of the Board shall be final.

11. The following actions, among others, shall be considered to amount to corrupt practice on the part of a candidate or his agent : -

- (a) Paying the registration fee payable by the voter ,

- (b) Tampering with, or handling the voting paper of the voter.

12. Voting papers must be sent by the voters to the Registrar in a sealed cover, sealed with a distinctive seal, unless they are signed in the presence of the Registrar, in which case, they may be delivered to him unsealed.

CHAPTER 'I B.

Ordinances. ORDINANCES RELATING TO THE ELECTION OF LECTURERS AS MEMBERS OF THE COURT BY THE TEACHERS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

1 There shall be held, on dates to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, elections to fill vacancies among the members of the Court elected by the Teachers of the University.

NOTE. The term 'Teachers' includes Professors, Readers and Lecturers. [Vide section 2 (g) of the Dacca University Act XVIII of 1920.]

2. Intimation of the date fixed for an election shall be sent to all teachers by the Registrar at least 15 clear days before such date.

3. Any teacher may propose the name of any lecturer for election as a member of the Court by sending to the Registrar at least 10 clear days before the date fixed for election the name of the candidate proposed and a brief statement of his qualifications. The Registrar shall cause a list of the nominees together with the statement of the qualifications to be circulated among the teachers of the University not less than 4 clear days before the election.

4. The election shall be by means of balloting papers, and shall take place at a meeting of teachers presided over by the Vice-Chancellor or in his absence by a deputy nominated by him in this behalf. The balloting papers shall be counted by two scrutineers appointed by the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy.

5. Every teacher shall have one vote for each vacancy, but he shall not have the right to record more than one vote in favour of one candidate. He may, if he so chooses, withhold one or more of his votes.

6. No candidate shall be deemed to be elected, unless he obtains an absolute majority of the votes of the persons present and voting. If an absolute majority of such votes is not obtained by any candidate who would otherwise be elected, there shall be a fresh election after eliminating the names of

(a) those candidates who having obtained an absolute majority of the votes have been elected and

(b) the candidate who has obtained the smallest number of votes.

Provided that if the number of candidates remaining after the elimination provided for under sub-section (a) above do not exceed the number of candidates remaining to be elected, no action shall be taken under sub-section (b) above.

CHAPTER II.

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Regulations.

1. The Executive Council shall meet ordinarily on the first Monday in each month while the University is in session.

2. The Council shall at its first meeting in each calendar year elect a Vice-Chairman for the year, who shall preside at meetings in the absence of the Vice-Chancellor. If at any meeting both the Vice-Chancellor and the Vice-Chairman are absent, the Council shall elect a Chairman for the meeting.

3. Seven members shall form a quorum.

4. The Vice-Chancellor may at any time and shall within ten days on requisition being made to him in writing signed by not less than six members of the Council convene an Extraordinary meeting of the Council.

5. Three days' notice shall be given of extraordinary meetings of the Council, except when the nature of the business to be brought before the Council in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor necessitates an immediate meeting. When in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor an immediate meeting is necessary, every member of the Council resident in Dacca shall receive a notice of the meeting in time to enable him to attend the meeting and no business that is not of immediate urgency shall be transacted at the meeting.

6. At the meetings of the Executive Council the Chairman shall have a vote and a casting vote.

CHAPTER III.

Regulation.

THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL.

1. The Vice-Chancellor shall convene a meeting of the Academic Council at any time on his own initiative or on receipt of a requisition signed by not less than eight members of the Council.

2. Not less than two days' notice shall be given of the time and place of meeting.

3. Ten members shall form a quorum..

4. In the absence of the Vice Chancellor the meeting shall elect a Provost or the Dean of one of the Faculties to preside at the meeting.

5. At all the meetings of the Council the Chairman shall have a vote and a casting vote.

CHAPTER IV.

COMMITTEES OF COURSES AND STUDIES.

Ordinances.

1. There shall be a Committee of Courses of Studies for each Honours School, and for each subject for the ordinary degree. The same committee may be appointed to serve for more than one course.

2. Each committee shall consist of not more than nine members elected for one calendar year by the Faculty within whose purview the course lies at a meeting to be held in December. At least three quarters of the members of any committee shall be teachers in one of the subjects of the course.

Constitution.

3. The Chairman of each committee shall be elected from among the heads of Departments by the Faculty which has constituted the committee.

4. If two or more committees belonging to the same Faculty meet jointly, the Chairman at the joint session shall be the Dean or a head of Department appointed by the Dean; whereas if such committees belong to different Faculties, the Chairman at the joint session shall be the Vice-Chancellor, or a head of Department appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

Joint meetings.

5. The functions of the committees shall be to make recommendation to the Faculty on the following matters, (1) syllabuses for subjects of instruction (2) correlation of subjects permitted in the various courses, (3) new courses of study, (4) the names of examiners.

6. Two-thirds of the members of a committee of a course of studies or, in the case of joint sessions, of the total number of the members of the committees meeting jointly, shall form a quorum.

CHAPTER V.

Ordinances.

BOARD OF RESIDENCE, HEALTH AND DISCIPLINE.

1. The Board of Residence, Health and Discipline shall consist of—

The Vice-Chancellor who shall be Chairman and convener.

The Proctor, who shall be Secretary.

The Director of Physical Education.

The Civil Surgeon of Dacca.

The Medical Officer of the University.

The Provosts.

The Wardens (if any.)

Three teachers appointed by the Executive Council, of whom one at least shall be a Hindu and one at least a Muhammadan,

2. The powers of the Board shall be -

(a) to decide in particular cases whether a non-resident student shall, under the existing statutes and ordinances be permitted to reside under the conditions under which he applies for permission to reside ;

(b) to report to the Executive Council rules and regulations affecting the health of students and in the case of an epidemic, on the measures to be taken ;

(c) to report to the Executive Council rules and regulations affecting the discipline of students elsewhere than within the compounds of the halls and hostels.

3. No ordinance or regulation relating to the conditions of residence, health, or discipline of students shall be passed by the Executive Council, unless the opinion of the Board of Residence, Health and Discipline upon it has previously been taken.

4. The Board of Residence, Health and Discipline shall have the right to express an opinion on all plans for new, or alterations to old, buildings, and on all schemes for drainage or levelling before they are adopted by the Executive Council.

CHAPTER VI.

EXAMINATIONS.

Ordinances.

1. The dates of all University examinations shall be fixed by the Executive Council after report from the Academic Council and the date of an examination shall ordinarily be announced at least six months before the examination takes place.

2. The appointment of examiners for all University examinations shall be made by the Academic Council after report from the relevant Faculty or Faculties at least six months before the dates of the examination, for which their services are required and with such remuneration as shall be determined by the Executive Council.

3. At least one External examiner shall be required to take part in the viva voce examination for each Honours school and to attend the meeting of the Examination Committee at which the results are considered. Such examiners shall, in accepting their appointments, agree to come to Dacca for a stated period for the purpose.

4. If any examiner is obliged to resign his appointment before the examination takes place, the Academic Council shall appoint another examiner to fill the vacancy ; but if, during the course of an examination, any examiner is for any cause incapable of acting as such, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint an examiner to fill the vacancy [section 35 (2) of the Act.]

5. As soon as the appointment of examiners for any University examination is completed, the Academic Council shall constitute the necessary Examination Committees and appoint chairmen for these committees. Each Examination Committee shall include at least one External Examiner.

There shall be separate Examination Committees for (1) each of the Honours Schools, (2) each of the subjects for the examinations for the degree of Master, (3) each candidate for the degree of Doctor and (4) for each of the subjects of examinations for ordinary degrees.

For ordinary Degrees the Past List shall be drawn up by a joint meeting consisting of two representatives of each of the Examination Committees for the subjects of the examination, elected by each such Committee. The meeting shall be presided over by the Vice-Chancellor or in his absence by the Dean of the relevant Faculty. One of the representatives of each Examination Committee, provided for above shall, if possible, be an External Examiner.

6. The functions of Examination Committees shall be to moderate examination questions, to prepare the results of the examinations, and to report the results to the Executive Council for publication [section 35 (4) of the Act.]

The Examination Committee shall in each case decide by which members the papers shall be set in the first instance.

7. All question papers shall be sent to the Registrar in sealed covers by a date to be fixed by the Academic Council not less than 5 months before the date of the examination. The Registrar shall forward the papers to the Chairman of the appropriate Examination Committees, who shall present them to their respective committees for consideration. The Chairman shall return the question papers, in the form approved by the various Committees, to the Registrar for printing, not less than four months before the dates of the respective examinations.

8. No question shall be asked at any University examination which may require an expression of religious belief on the part of the candidates; and no answer or translation given by any candidate shall be objected to on the ground of its expressing peculiarities of religious belief.

9. Each script at the examination in any Honours School shall be marked in the first instance by one examiner and revised by another.

10. Before admission to any examination, candidates must pay the examination fee and all other outstanding University dues.

11. The Academic Council shall make all arrangements for the carrying out of University Examinations and shall require teachers of the University to take part in the work of invigilating for such remuneration as may be determined by the Executive Council.

CHAPTER VII.

UNIVERSITY ACCOUNTS.

Ordinances.

1. The income of the University shall be divided under two heads, viz :—

- (a) Government Grant.
- (b) Non-Government Sources.

[Under section 20 (d) of Act XVIII of 1920, the Executive Council is authorized to submit an annual requisition to Government for necessary grants. Clause (g) of the same section empowers it to accept the transfer of any movable or immovable property on behalf of the University. Clause (i) of section 4 of the Schedule enables the Executive Council to invest any University funds in securities, movable or immovable.]

2. The administration of the funds of the University from all sources shall be vested in the Executive Council (section 20 of Act XVIII of 1920).

3. The Executive Council shall appoint from among its own members a Finance Committee to advise it on matters of finance (section 20 of Act). This committee shall consist of six members, including ex-officio the Vice-Chancellor, and the Treasurer, who shall be Chairman and convener. It shall also include at least one member elected to the Executive Council by the Court.

Preparation of Budget.

4. By a date to be fixed by the Executive Council the Finance Committee shall prepare in the prescribed form a budget estimate of the probable income and expenditure and submit it to the Executive Council for approval.

5. The budget estimate shall set forth the estimated receipts and expenditure and opening and closing balances.

6. The budget estimate shall be accompanied by necessary explanatory schedules.

7. If at any time during the year the Executive Council has reason to believe that the budget under any head is likely to be exceeded and that the excess cannot be met by reduction under some other head, a supplementary budget estimate shall be prepared with the least possible delay and submitted to Government.

8. If the Executive Council has reason to suppose that the receipts under any head are likely to fall materially short of the budget estimate, a revised budget estimate shall be prepared with the least possible delay and submitted as above to Government.

Realisation of Fees.

9. All fees and fines shall be paid to the office of the Registrar.

Payment of salaries.

10. Salaries fall due on the first day of the month following that for which the salary is paid.

11. Income Tax, Subscription to Provident Fund, House rent and other dues to the University shall be deducted from the salaries of officers and teachers before payment is made to them.

12. Payment for salaries shall ordinarily be by cheque. If any officer or teacher desires that payment shall be made to him in cash, he will attend the Registrar's office at a time fixed by the Registrar and receive it in person.

13. With every payment of salary shall be furnished a slip showing the amount of salary due and the amount of deduction under different heads.

14. Save with the special sanction of the Vice-Chancellor no claim by an officer or teacher for money due to him from the University shall be valid unless made within six months of the date at which the payment fell due.

15. No recovery of salary or other money paid in excess by the University to an officer or teacher shall be made after twelve months have elapsed from the time the payment was made, unless it appears that the officer or teacher was aware at the time of payment that he was receiving more than was due to him.

16. For every member of the University staff holding a substantive appointment on its permanent establishment a service book, duly filled in and attested, shall be maintained.

Record of service.

17. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the presentation to the Executive Council of the annual estimates and statements of accounts and for seeing that all monies are expended on the object for which they were granted or allotted.

18. The following officers shall be severally granted consolidated annual allotments and shall maintain an account register of all the expenditure incurred by their respective branches. The Registrar will keep an account in respect of each such department :—

The Provosts.
The Heads of Departments of Study.
The Librarian.
The Registrar.

They will be allowed permanent advances for petty expenditure. Balances of allotments will be carried over to the following year.

19. The Steward shall be attached to the office of the Registrar and be subject to his control.

Travelling Allowance.

20. Travelling allowances shall be granted to members of the Court and to members of the University Staff for journeys undertaken in the interests of the University at the rates allowed by Government to its servants of the same rank. For this purpose, except as provided for above, Officers, Professors, Readers, External Examiners, and members of the Court, not being members of the University Staff, shall be deemed to have the rank of Government officers of the first class; other members of the University Staff shall rank as Officers of the 2nd or 3rd class according as their pay is or is not over Rs. 200 per mensem. In the case of a person in none of the above categories the Executive Council shall make a special rule.

21. The Vice Chancellor shall be regarded as the controlling officer for the purpose of passing bills for travelling allowances.

Record of appointments.

22. There shall be maintained a permanent register in which all appointments, promotions, leave, suspension, fines, reduction or enhancement of salaries, and office arrangements regarding all members of the University Staff are entered.

CHAPTER VIII.

Ordinances.

ENDOWMENTS AND BEQUESTS.

1. Endowments, the annual income form which is to be used for the periodical grant of medals, prizes, scholarship, or the maintenance of a University Chair or Readership, may be of the following forms :—

- (a) Any amount in cash or trustee securities not less than Rs. 500.
- (b) Landed properties, e. g. fee simple or revenue-paying estate yielding a net annual profit of not less than Rs. 1,000.

2. All endowments (whether in the form of a bequest,* donation or transfer of property) must be made in writing and by a registered deed in cases in which registration is necessary under the provision of the Indian Registration Act or any other Act for registration of such transaction which is, or may hereafter be, in force in British India.

3. All offers of endowments shall be made, through the Vice-Chancellor, to the Executive Council. If the proposed endowment be accepted, the decision of the Executive Council shall be reported to the Court at its next meeting.

CHAPTER IX.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF OFFICERS, TEACHERS AND MEMBERS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND CLERICAL STAFF.

Ordinances.

1. The Executive Council shall, subject to the conditions laid down in Section 44 (1) of Act XVIII of 1920, Statutes 16, 17 and 18 and the Ordinances, have power to appoint officers (other than the Vice-Chancellor and Treasurer), teachers and members of the Administrative and Clerical staff of the University, to determine their remuneration and the terms of their service (in accordance with the Ordinances), and to dismiss or discharge them when necessity arises after a report from the Academic Council.

2. All teachers of the University shall ordinarily be appointed on written contracts extending over seven years in the first instance ; but these contracts may be renewed for such period or periods as the Executive Council shall decide, after a report from the Academic Council, in the event of the teacher having given satisfactory proof, during his initial period of service, of active work in his own subject

* For form of Bequest vide Appendix B.

3. Service as a teacher under the University shall ordinarily terminate at the end of session (June 30th) in which the age of 55 is attained. In special cases, however, this limit may be extended at the discretion of the Executive Council.

4. Leave to the Vice-Chancellor and Treasurer shall be granted by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the Executive Council, leave to other officers shall be granted by the Executive Council, leave to teachers by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Academic Council, and leave to members of the clerical and administrative staff by the heads of the offices to which they are attached.

5. Every day of which the whole is not spent on duty shall be held to be a day of leave.

6. Vacation on full pay may be taken in continuation of any leave, and when the period of leave commences on the day following the last day of a vacation and concludes on the day preceding the first day of a vacation, both vacations may be taken on full pay in continuation of the leave

7. The amount of furlough on half average salary for the previous 3 years due to an officer, teacher or clerk at any time is one-fifth of his entire service under the University, less the amount of furlough and leave on medical certificate that he has already enjoyed.

8. Furlough, except on medical certificate, shall not be granted to an officer, teacher or clerk of less than five years' standing in the University.

9. An officer or teacher shall earn one month's special leave on half pay in every year of service and in every fraction of a year the same fraction of a month. Special leave can be accumulated up to three months.

10. If an officer, teacher or clerk is retained on duty by competent authority during a vacation, he shall earn Privilege leave on full pay amounting to one quarter of the period thus spent on duty.

There shall be no limit to the amount of Privilege leave accumulated under this rule and such leave can be added to the three months' Special leave which can ordinarily be accumulated, and may be taken in extension of any other kind of leave.

11. If an officer or teacher on Special or Privilege leave would, in the ordinary course, return to duty not more than one month before the commencement of a vacation, he may be granted Subsidiary leave on half pay for a period sufficient to join his period of leave to that vacation and the vacation shall be on full pay.

12. Leave on half pay, except leave on medical certificate, may be commuted to leave on full pay for half the period for which leave on half pay is due, provided that such commuted leave shall not extend over a period of more than three months or be combined with leave other than vacation in such a way that the total period of leave exceeds three months. After commuted leave has been taken no further commuted leave shall be taken by the same person within an interval of two years.

13. Special leave under rule 9 cannot be enjoyed in India or Ceylon except when it is taken on medical certificate; Privilege leave under rule 10 can.

14. Leave may be granted on medical certificate up to the amount of Furlough due, but not exceeding one year, on half average salary, and an equal amount on quarter average salary. If an officer or teacher commences his leave on medical certificate immediately after a vacation, not having been on leave of any kind for more than five days during the two months previous to the vacation or concludes his leave on medical certificate immediately before a vacation and is not on leave of any kind for more than five days during the succeeding two months, he shall draw full pay during the vacation.

15. An officer or teacher shall, on return from medical leave submit to the Executive Council a medical certificate from the University Medical Officer to the effect that he is fit to return to duty.

16. Study leave on three-quarters pay for a period not exceeding one year, to be enjoyed only outside India, may be granted to a teacher of not less than 5 years' standing. All applications for study leave must be accompanied by a statement of the work the teacher intends to do during the leave and on return from leave the teacher must submit to the Academic Council a short diary of the work he has done.

17. Casual leave, which cannot be accumulated and cannot be joined to any other sort of leave, for ten days in one academic year, can be granted :—

(1) By the Vice-Chancellor to an Officer of the University, a Provost or a Head of a Department.

(2) By the Dean of Faculty to a teacher other than the Provost or Head of a Department under the Faculty.

(3) By the Head of an office to a member of his staff.

18. If an officer, teacher or clerk is absent from duty for a period not exceeding one week immediately after a vacation, he may, at the discretion of the Executive Council, be granted an extension of vacation (a) on half pay, (b) without allowances, according as it appears that he has, or has not, made a reasonable effort to return to duty at the proper time.

19. Any kind of leave, except Casual leave, can be combined with any other kind of leave, except as provided under paragraph 12.

20. Every member of the public services in India appointed to a post under the University shall retain a right to all leave earned prior to employment by the University, provided satisfactory arrangements to meet cost have been made with the Government concerned. Such leave shall, however, only be granted when it can be taken without prejudice to University work, and after reference to the Accountant-General as to the amount of leave due,

21. Leave without allowances for a period not exceeding two years may be granted by the Executive Council under conditions to be determined in each individual case, provided that the interests of the University are not seriously prejudiced by such grant of leave.

22. When an officer or teacher of the University who draws an allowance or is exempted from payment of house rent goes on leave, the officer or teacher who undertakes the duties for the performance of which such privileges are granted, shall enjoy those privileges.

23. The amount of allowance if any to be paid to an officer or teacher who undertakes additional duty on account of the absence on leave of another officer or teacher shall be decided in each case by the Executive Council (after report from the Academic Council in the case of teachers), but no allowance shall ordinarily be given to a teacher for undertaking additional work in teaching on account of the absence of another teacher.

(a) No person on leave shall be permitted to accept a salaried appointment or undertake professional work while on leave, except with the permission of the Executive Council.

24. All officers, teachers and other members of the University staff (not being Government servants) shall subscribe to the Provident Fund of the University according to the Statutes governing this Fund.

CHAPTER X.

Ordinances.

APPOINTMENTS TO TEACHING POSTS OTHER THAN PROFESSORSHIPS AND READERSHIPS.(Vide Section 18 of the Schedule to Act XVIII of 1920).

1. Appointments to teaching posts other than Professorships and Readerships shall be made by the Executive Council [Vide Section 20 (f) to Act XVIII of 1920, and Section 4 (c) of the Schedule] after report from Committees of Selection constituted for this purpose as follows :—

- (i) The Vice-Chancellor ;
- (ii) The Dean of the Faculty concerned, and
- (iii) The Head of the Department concerned.

2. All teaching appointments other than Professorships and Readerships shall be advertised.

CHAPTER XI.

Ordinances.

RESIDENCES.

1. The full monthly rental of all houses belonging to the University shall be fixed at $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the capital cost of the site and buildings (this rental comprises $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum for interest on capital and $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum for maintenance and repairs).

2. The full rental of the portions of residences occupied by officers and teachers, when two or more officers or teachers are accommodated in the same building, shall be assessed by the Treasurer, whose decision in the matter shall be final. The total of the rental of the different portions of a residence shall not exceed the full rental of the residence assessed according to the foregoing ordinance.

3. No officer or teacher of the University shall be charged rent in excess of 10 per cent. of the total amount received by him from the University (exclusive of fees for examination and other special work) during the month for which the rent is paid.

4. The following officers and classes of officers and teachers shall not be charged rent for the residences or quarters which they occupy :—

The Vice-Chancellor.

The Provosts.

The House-tutors and Assistant House-tutors who reside in Halls.

5. Monthly rent for sanitary, water-supply and electrical installations shall be charged at a uniform rate of $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. of the capital cost (this rent comprises $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum for interest on capital and $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum for maintenance and repairs). This rent shall be paid by tenants in addition to the rent of their residences as fixed in Ordinances 1 and 2 above, and shall also be paid by tenants who are not charged rent for their residences.

Provided that in no case shall the combined charge for house-rent, rent for sanitary, water supply and electrical installations exceed $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the total amount received by him from the University (as defined in Ordinance 3 above).

6. Occupiers of residences under Ordinances 1-4 above shall be responsible for the payment on demand of Municipal occupiers' taxes, unless they are granted rooms in the residential blocks of Halls or Hostels, in which case they shall be exempted.

7. Houses shall be allocated to particular officers and teachers by the Vice-Chancellor acting in consultation with the Treasurer.

8. Urgent repairs to residences for which the estimate does not exceed Rs. 50 shall be carried out by the Steward with the approval of the Registrar. Estimates for repairs of over Rs. 50 must be accepted before the work is begun by the Executive Council, or such Committee as may be empowered by them in this behalf.

3. Mathematics.
4. Education (including Experimental Psychology)

2. The degrees in this Faculty shall be—

1. Bachelor of Science (B. Sc.)
2. Master of Science (M. Sc.).
3. Doctor of Science (D. Sc.)

3. The degree of Bachelor of Science shall be conferred either as an Ordinary degree or as a degree with Honours.

Degree of Bachelor of Science.

4. Candidates shall not be admitted to the final examination for the degree of Bachelor of Science unless they have (1) fulfilled the conditions for the residence of students reading for degrees ; (2) passed the prescribed Test in oral English and English Composition ; (3) furnished a certificate from their Tutor, countersigned by the Head of the Department in the case of students reading for the degree with Honours and by the Head of their Hall or Hostel in the case of students reading for the Ordinary degree testifying that the student is fitted to appear at the examination and (4) paid the examination fee to the Registrar.

5. The Test in English will be held once at the end of every term and students may take it at any time after entering the University. Instruction in the practical use of the English language will be provided by the University but no student shall be compelled to attend any course before appearing at the examination. Candidates who fail shall be allowed to take the Test again.

Regulations.

PART II—ORDINARY DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE. Ordinances.

1. Courses of study for the Ordinary degree of Bachelor of Science shall extend over two academic years, and there shall be one degree examination at the end of the second academic year.

2. Candidates shall be required before presenting themselves for the degree examination, to have resided at a Hall or Hostel, or under the conditions laid down in Ordinance 4 of the Ordinances for the Residence of Students, for a period of not less than 180 days in each of two academic years.

3. The subjects for the final examination shall be :—

- I. Physics.
- II. Chemistry.
- III. Mathematics.
- IV. Principles of Education (including Experimental Psychology).

4. Every candidate shall be required to pass in three subjects. No candidate shall be allowed to take I, or II or III unless he has passed an examination in the corresponding subject in the Intermediate or other qualifying examination.

5. A certain number of standard books in English on scientific subjects shall be prescribed for all candidates.

6. The final examination in Physics, Chemistry and Education shall comprise three papers and a six hours' practical examination in each case ; and the examination in Mathematics shall comprise four papers.

7. Names of successful candidates shall be arranged in alphabetical order, but candidates whose work is of special merit shall be awarded distinction.

8. Candidates who fail in one subject only, but obtain in the aggregate sufficient marks for a pass shall be permitted to enter for that subject only at the next examination, but if they fail a second time they shall be required to enter again for the whole examination. Candidates who fail in more than one subject shall be required to enter again for the whole examination.

9. Students who are reading for an Ordinary degree may be transferred by the Dean, on the recommendation of the Head of their Hall or Hostel, to a course for the degree with Honours at any time up to the commencement of the second academic year.

- (II) Chemistry with Physics and Mathematics as subsidiary subjects.
- (III) Mathematics with Physics and Chemistry as subsidiary subjects.

4. The Honours Schools shall be constituted as follows :—

I. Physics—

- (a) Five papers, and a twelve hours' practical examination in Physics ;

- (b) the entire examination in Mathematics and Chemistry for the Ordinary degree ; and
- (c) viva voce examination.

II. Chemistry—

- (a) Four papers in Chemistry and a twelve hours' practical examination ;
- (b) the entire examination in Mathematics and Physics for the Ordinary degree ; and
- (c) viva voce examination.

III. Mathematics—

- (a) Eight papers in Mathematics ; and
- (b) the entire examination in Physics and Chemistry for the Ordinary degree.

5. The examination in the subsidiary subjects may be taken at the end of the second academic year.

6. A certain number of standard books in English on scientific subjects shall be prescribed for each Honours School.

7. Names of successful candidates shall be published in such form as to distinguish the Honours School in which severally they have passed. They shall be drawn up in two classes and each class arranged in alphabetical order.

8. Candidates who fail will be allowed to take the examination of the same Honours School a second time.

9. The length of the course of study pursued by the candidate shall be stated on his diploma.

10. Candidates who have not acquitted themselves so as to deserve Honours may be recommended for an Ordinary degree.

11. Candidates who have passed the examination of one Honours School, may, after pursuing a further course of study approved by the Dean for at least one and not more than two academic years, be admitted to the examination of any other Honours School. Such candidates shall be required to take the papers in the principal subject of their second Honours School only and not in any subsidiary subjects.

12. Students who are reading for the degree with Honours may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department responsible for their studies, be transferred by the Dean to the pass course at any time up to the commencement of the second academic year. Payment of Fee in advance in a lump sum.

(2) Students may, however, compound for the Class fees for a year by a single payment in advance of Rs. 90 (ninety). This composition fee shall be paid on the first date in the academic year fixed for receiving fees or, in the case of newly admitted students, at the time of admission. The University may, in exceptional cases, accept the composition fee at any time on or before the date fixed for the receipt of the second monthly fee.

Monthly payment of fee

5. The class fee for a course for the Master's degree in the Faculty of Arts shall be Rs. 10 (ten) a month, for 12 months in the year and Rs 12 a month for 12 months in the year in the Faculty of Science.

Payment of admission and University fee

6. Fees for each month will be received during the second week of the month for which the fees are due on dates which will be fixed from time to time.

7. A student, if admitted after the beginning of the session, shall pay the admission fee and the University dues from the commencement of the academic year up to and including the fee for the month in which he is admitted.

Delay fine

8. An additional fee of annas 2 (two) shall be charged for every day or part of a day that a student is in arrears in payment of his monthly class fee. As soon as the delay amounts to seven days the name of the defaulting student shall be reported to the Head of the Hall or Hostel to which the student is attached.

Removal from register.

9. If the monthly class fee or any fine due from a student remains unpaid until the last day of the month, the student's name shall be removed from the Register.

Re-admission.

10. A student, whose name has been removed from the Register for non-payment of dues, may be re-admitted on payment of the fees mentioned in Ordinances 2-8, above.

Receipt for payment.

11. Every student shall be entitled to a receipt for each sum paid by him into the University Treasury.

12. In addition to his Class fee, a student attending laboratory classes in the Faculty of Science shall pay on admission Rs. 20 (twenty) as caution money. The price of, or repairs to, any apparatus wilfully or carelessly destroyed or damaged by him will be recouped from the afore-said caution money. If the caution money falls short of the price or cost of repairs of such apparatus, the deficit shall be met by the student. The Head of each Department of the Faculty of Science shall submit to the Registrar during the first fortnight of each session a list of all students whose deposit has been decreased by payment for breakages, and the Registrar shall then call on such students to make up their caution money again to Rs. 20 (twenty). The unexpended balance of a student's caution money shall be returned to him on the completion of his course of study at the University.

13. The minimum rent for a room in a Hall or Hostel shall be Rs. 2 (two) per month, exclusive of the boarding charges. This fee is intended to cover the cost for electric light and menial servants. In every Hall or Hostel at least 50 per cent. of the rooms shall be rented at this minimum rate and no rate higher than Rs. 4 (four) shall be charged for any room.

Room rent.

14. Room rents shall be paid during the second week of every month. In case of default an additional fee of anna 1 (one) shall be charged for every day till payment. If the defaulter fails to pay his dues by the last day of the month, his name shall be removed from the register of Hall or Hostel.

Payment of
room rent.

Removal from the Hall or Hostel Roll for failure to pay dues will entail removal from the rolls of the University.

Free use of libraries.

15. No fee shall be levied from any student of the University for the use of any book in the Libraries of the University or any of its Halls or Hostels.

16. The annual subscription for athletics shall be Rs. 5 (five). This fee is compulsory on all students and must be paid together with the first fees paid to the University in each academic year.

17. Examination fees have not yet been finally sanctioned. The fees will not exceed those at present charged in the Calcutta University.

18. The fees for the registration of graduates are prescribed by Statute.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Ordinances.

RESIDENCE OF STUDENTS.

[Vide Act XVIII of 1920, Section 31
and Statute 11 (2).]

1. The residences of all students of the University shall be within 5 miles of the Convocation Hall.

2. A student who is attached to, but does not reside in a Hall or Hostel of the University, shall be styled an attached student.

3. The number of undergraduate students attached to a Hall or Hostel shall not exceed 33 per cent. of the total number of students resident in the Hall or Hostel, provided that this and the following rule may be relaxed for a fixed period at the discretion of the Executive Council in the case of students of a Hall or Hostel whose buildings have not been completed.

4. An attached student of the University will ordinarily be allowed to reside only in his home, but the Provost of his Hall shall have power in exceptional cases to permit such student to reside with a guardian who is his near relative.

5. In the event of the removal from Dacca of the person in whose house an attached student is residing, the student must at once take up his residence in the Hall or Hostel to which he is attached, or if there is no accommodation available in the Hall or Hostel, the Provost or Warden shall decide under what conditions the student shall reside temporarily. In the event of accommodation being available in a Hall or Hostel other than his own, the Provost or Warden may, with the concurrence of the Provost or Warden of such other Hall or Hostel, order the student to reside temporarily in the other Hall or Hostel and to be subject to its discipline while remaining attached to his own Hall or Hostel for purposes of games, clubs etc.

6. Provosts and Wardens shall be responsible to the Executive Council for ascertaining whether the attached students under their care are residing under the conditions under which they state that they are residing.

7. A student who makes a false statement regarding the conditions of his residence or deliberately omits to report the fact of the removal from Dacca or change of residence of the guardian approved by the authorities of the University, shall be liable to expulsion.

CHAPTER—XIX.

DISCIPLINE.

Regulations.

1. Students, whether resident or attached, must be in their houses before 9 P.M. and must not leave them before 5 A. M. except under written permission from the Provost or Warden of the Hall or Hostel of which they are members.

2. Students who have previously obtained permission from the Provost or Warden will pay gate-money for knocking in after 9 P. M. at the following rates :—

9 P. M. to 10 P. M.....	As. 4 (four)
10 P. M. to 11 P. M....	As. 6 (six)
11 P. M. to 12 P. M.....	As. 8 (eight)

These charges must be paid both by resident and by attached students to the general fund of the Hall or Hostel to which they are attached.

3. A gate-book in which are recorded the times at which students knock in after 9 P. M. must be kept by a competent authority in all houses of Halls or Hostels. All gate-books must be sent for inspection to the Provost or Warden in the first week of each month.

4. If it is found that the head of the house in which a non-resident student is living has failed to record in the gate-book absences after 9 P. M. on the part of the student, the student may at the discretion of the Provost or Warden of the Hall or Hostel to which he is attached, be compelled to take up his residence in the Hall or Hostel. The student will also be liable to pay gate-money at double the rates mentioned in Regulation 4 above for any occasion on which he is proved to have evaded payment.

5. A student who wilfully destroys or injures University property will be called upon to make good the loss to the University and will also be liable to other penalties.

CHAPTER XX.

Regulations.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

1. In his own interest, every undergraduate student will be examined on admission to the University either by the Medical Officer, or the Director of Physical Education or both. All students will be entitled to free medical attendance by the Medical Officer.

2. Every undergraduate student will be required either to take part regularly in games or to pursue such a course of physical training prescribed by the Director of Physical Education as may be suited to his requirements.

3. At the commencement of each academic year the Provosts and Wardens shall report to the Director of Physical Education the names of all such students resident in or attached to their Halls and Hostels as do not wish to play games regularly. The Director of Physical Education shall prescribe physical exercises for these students and shall have the power of imposing fines for non-attendance at the times and places fixed by him on a scale to be authorised by the Executive Council.

4. Every student must be vaccinated on joining the University unless he can satisfy the Medical Officer that he has been vaccinated not more than a year previously.

5. In the event of an epidemic every student must submit to such inoculation or other precautionary measure as may be prescribed by the Board of Health, Residence and Discipline.

6. No student, not being a patient, may enter the compound of the isolation ward of the University hospital without the express permission of the Medical Officer.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC CLUB.

Regulations.

1. The General Committee of Dacca University Athletic Club shall be elected in September of each year and shall hold office for one year from the commencement of the Puja Vacation.

2. The General Committee shall consist of a President and Treasurer, who shall be officers of the University or teachers of the status of Professor or Reader, two Vice-Presidents, who shall be members of the University staff, two members elected by the students of each Hall or Hostel of not less than 200 members, and one member elected by the students of each Hall or Hostel of less than 200 members, and the Captains of the University Cricket team, the Hockey team and the Football team.

3. The student members shall meet immediately after election under the chairmanship of the President of the previous year and shall elect the President, Treasurer and Vice-Presidents for the year. No other business shall be transacted at this meeting.

4. The Committee shall elect a Secretary. The President, Treasurer, Secretary and Captain of the seasonal game shall form the Executive Committee for the time being.

5. The General Committee shall have power :—
- (1) to make rules for the annual University sport ;
 - (2) to make rules for the inter-Hall competitions ;
 - (3) to arrange University matches ;
 - (4) to decide appeals in connection with inter-Hall competition,
 - (5) to make regulations in accordance with these Regulations.

6. No University team may enter for any local tournament or league.

7. No team of a Hall or Hostel may enter for more than one local tournament or league in one season.

8. The up-keep of the University grounds and pitches shall be under the direction of the Steward. The President of the club shall inform the Steward when any special preparation of the grounds or pitches is necessary.

9. The captain for the season of each University team shall be elected by the members of the previous year's team to whom colours have been awarded.

10. Colours shall be awarded by the Captain of each University team.

CHAPTER XXII

VACATIONS AND HOLIDAYS.

1. The Long Vacation of the University shall extend from 10th April to 30th June, both days inclusive.

2. The Puja Vacation of the University shall extend in 1921 from 1st October to 31st October, both days inclusive.

Provided that in years in which this period does not include the gazetted Durgah Puja holidays the Puja Vacation shall be of the duration of 30 days and shall commence on a date to be fixed by the Executive Council.

3. All University offices shall be closed on the Gazetted holidays of Government and no University lectures shall be delivered on those days, but Hindu students may be called upon to work with their tutors on Muhammadan holidays and Muhammadan students on Hindu holidays.

4. The offices of the Treasurer and Registrar and the University Library may be closed, and lectures intermitted for a day or part of a day on particular occasions at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor.

5. At midday on Fridays one hour shall be left free of public lectures so that Muhammadan teachers and students may attend Friday prayer.

CHAPTER XXIII.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

Ordinances.

1. The University Library shall be open from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily while the University is in session, except on Sundays and Gazetted holidays, on which days it shall be open from 12 noon to 3 P. M.

2. The University Library shall be open daily during vacations, except on Sundays and Gazetted holidays from 12 noon to 3 P. M.

3. All internal students of the University shall be entitled to use the University Library.

4. No students shall be allowed to take books belonging to the University Library outside the Reading Room

Regulations.

5. An officer or teacher of the University to whom a book is issued shall have the right of retaining that book for fifteen days. If after the expiry of fifteen days the book is required by another officer or teacher it shall be returned to the Library by the borrower immediately on demand of the Librarian.

6. All books shall be returned to the Library for inspection three months after issue. Books not required by another borrower may be re-issued to the same borrower immediately.

7. All borrowers are advised to inspect books issued to them at the time of issue and to call the attention of the Library Assistant to any defects, marginal notes, etc., which may appear in them. The borrower shall be liable to replace at his own expense any book which is found damaged or annotated when returned to the Library.

LIBRARIES ATTACHED TO DEPARTMENTS OF STUDY, AND TO HALLS AND HOSTELS.

Ordinances.

8. Provosts and Wardens shall have power to frame rules for the use of the Libraries attached respectively to the Halls and Hostels under their control.

Stock shall be taken annually of all such Libraries and a report thereon made to the Library Committee.

9. Heads of Departments may frame rules for the use of books belonging to the general Library and placed under their care, provided that such rules shall be subject to confirmation by the Library Committee to whom any losses of books shall be reported without delay.

CHAPTER XXIV.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Ordinances

1. The University fees of all holders of scholarship, stipends, etc., paid by or through the University shall be deducted from the amount of their scholarships or stipends and not paid separately. If the scholarship or stipend is less than the fees due, the holder will pay as fees the difference between the fees and the scholarship or stipend.

In either case the student will sign a receipt in full for the amount of his scholarship and be entitled to receive a receipt for the amount of fee.

2. All cases of absence from Dacca on the part of a holder of a University scholarship or stipend must be reported to the Treasurer by the Head of the Hall or Hostel to which the student is attached, who will decide what part of the scholarship or stipend shall be paid for the period of absence. Ordinarily if the absence is unavoidable, payment will be made in full for 15 days of absence in an academic year and at half rate for a further period of 15 days in the same academic year.

3 It is hoped to establish travelling scholarships to enable deserving graduates to study in other parts of India, in Europe or in America, or other places.
