HAVE YOU IDEAS?

in your head for the production of a piece of printing that will greatly help to advertise some particular commodity in which you are interested? You have? But perhaps you are not sufficiently well versed in the art of printing to put those ideas into practical shape

IF SO,

do not send for a printer because his rates are cheap, because it's very likely the finished job will also look cheap. Send to a well-established firm of printers whose assistants have been trained in the art of advertising and printing, and if you have any ideas, then he will help you to

INDIAN CENTRAL COTTON COMMITTEE

[Incorporated by Indian Cotton Cess (Amendment) Act of 1948]

The Indian Central Cotton Committee was constituted by the Govt of India in March 1921, as a result of the recommendation of the Indian Cotton Committee of 1917-18. Originally the Committee was purely an advisory body, but with its incorporation under the Indian Cotton Cess Act in 1923, it became an administrative body, having at its disposal funds for the improvement and development of the growing, marketing and manufacture of cotton in India. The funds of the Committee are derived from the cotton cess of four annas per bale which was imposed under the Indian Cotton Cess Amendment Act of 1948 The Committee is at present spending about Rs. 10 lakhs per annum on cotton improvement, mainly on agricultural and technological research and seed distribution and marketing schemes

The activities of the Committee now extend to all branches of cotton improvement in India, and, as an authoritative body to advice the Central and State Governments on important matters of cotton policy, it has attained an outstanding position. The Committee provides funds for research into cotton problems of all India importance and for the development, extension and marketing of improved varieties of cotton. The aim, however has always been to supplement and not supplant the work of the Agricultural Departments in the cotton growing Indian States and States Unions. Including as it does representatives of growers, agricultural officers, traders, spinners and manufacturers, it has been an invaluable forum for the discussion of many problems of general concern

A list of the members constituting the Committee, and the various interests they represent, as on the 1st April, 1951, is given below :—Presdt Sardar Datar Singh (vice-chrmn, Indian Council of Agricultural Research). Vice-presdts R G Saraiya J P, R L Sethi (Agricultural Commsr with the Govt of India, ex-officio), Director-General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, Calcutta, ex-officio. Reptves of agricultural depts R M Sivaraman I C S (Dir of Agri, Madras), Dr B N Uppal (Dir of Agri, Bombay), Dr S B Singh (Dir of Agri, U P), B S Sawhney (Dir of Agri, Punjab), Dr R J Kalamkar (Dir of Agri, Madhya Pradesh). Reptves of chambers of commerce and assocns Madanmohan R Ruia (East India Cotton Assocn), L F H Goodwin (Bombay Chamber of Commerce), Vithal N Chandavarkar (Bombay Millowners' Association), Chimanlal B Parikh (Indian Merchants' Chamber), Madanmohan Mangaldas (Ahmedabad Millowners' Association), A Mueller (Tuticorin Chamber of Commerce), J K Srivastava (Upper India Chamber of Commerce), C P Bramble (Empire Cotton Growing Corporation). Commercial reptves nominated by Centl govt R V Deshmukh (Madhya Pradesh), Kishanlal Goenka (Madhya Pradesh), C M Kothari B A, LL B, (Madras), Kundan Lal (Punjab), Dr N Dutt (West Bengal). Co-operative banking reptve R G Saraiya J P Reptves of cotton growing industry A K D Balarama Raja and M Lakshmikantha Reddy (Madras), F B Loxmeshwar and S R Rane (Bombay), Maj Nawab Mohd Jamshed Ali Khan and Lala Basant Lal Agarwala (Uttar Pradesh), S K Wankhede bar-at-law and P S Patil (Madhya Pradesh), Sardar Waryam Singh (Punjab). Repeves of Indian States and States Unions Dr L S Doraswamy (Economic Botanist, Dept of Agri, Bangalore, Mysore), N M Deshmukh (Dir of Agri, Madhya Bharat, Gwalior), Dr T S Sabnis (Dir of Agri, Rajasthan, Jaipur), P D Nair (Dir of Agri, Hyderabad-Deccan), Dr Gursham Singh (Dir of Agri, Pepsu, Nabha), Seth Bhogilal M Shah (Mahalaxmi Mills Ld, Bhavnagar, United State of Kathiawar, Saurashtra). Additional members nominated by Central Government :—R Balasubramania Ayyar (Cotton Extension Officer, Coimbatore), G B Patel (Cotton Extension Officer, Surat), S S Pande [Economic Botanist (Cotton), Madhya Pradesh, Nagpur], Neville Wadia, Dr V K R V Rao, Chunilal B Mehta, Pandit Thakar Dass Bhargava M P, A S Lall (Joint Secretary to the Govt of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industries, New Delhi), D N Mahta B A (Oxon), F R S A (Secretary to the Govt of Bombay, Agri and Forests dept, Bombay), Brijlal Nandlal Biyani M P, Bhawanji A Khimji, Issardas Varindmal and Sardar Ujjal Singh

Amongst the research schemes of the Committee, plant breeding, schemes for the improvement of quality naturally take pride of place. The agencies employed by the Committee for its research work have varied little in character since 1923, though they have grown in number. It continues to maintain a Technological Laboratory at Bombay which includes a complete experimental spinning plant and a scientific laboratory for research on the cotton fibre and a Testing House which is recognised by the B I S F A. The Committee also provides a large proportion of the funds for the Indore Institute of Plant Industry.

For a considerable period the Committee restricted its grants to Agricultural research, but in 1930 it was decided that the time had come to add its support to the efforts already being made to bridge the gap between the experiment station and the cultivator and to supplement the funds which the Agricultural Departments were devoting to the introduction of improvements into agricultural practice. Special attention from that time began to be devoted to seed distribution schemes

The Committee has not stopped at the production of better cotton, but from its inception has devoted special attention to better marketing, to the prevention of adulteration and other abuses and to many other problems connected with the cotton trade of the country. Regulated Cotton Markets existed in Berar before the establishment of the Committee, and that system which stood the test of time was commended with certain modification for general adoption. Regulated Cotton Markets have now been established in Bombay, Madhya Pradesh, Madras, Punjab, Hyderabad and Madhya Bharat. Similarly, on the recommendation of the Committee, the Cotton Transport Act was passed in 1923 by which the State Governments are empowered to exclude from any specified area Cotton, Kapas or seed from outside unless required for a special purpose and covered by a licence. Prior to the passing of this Act, inferior cottons used to be imported in large quantities into the stable cotton tracts for purposes of adulteration, to the detriment of the reputation of several valuable cottons. The Act is now in force in almost all the important staple cotton areas of Bombay, Madras, Madhya Pradesh, Hyderabad, etc. In 1925, on the recommendation of the Committee, the Cotton Ginning and Pressing Factories Act was passed. This provides for a certain measure of control of ginning and pressing factories and especially for the marking of all bales of cotton pressed with a press mark and serial number which enables them to be traced to their origin. Recently the Act has been used for the prevention of watering and for the mixing of non-cotton articles with cotton. The Committee has also taken steps to bring to the notice of the trade, both in India and abroad, those improved varieties which have now reached a commercial scale

It may also be stated without hesitation that, as a result of the efforts of the Committee, the last twenty-eight years have seen a marked change in the character of the Indian crop, particularly in the percentage of short and medium staple. Equally important is the result of agricultural research and its application to the yield of cotton per acre. The average yield per acre in the quinquennium 1944-49 for the whole country was 92 lbs, while that in 1949-50 it was 94 lbs. The ascertained area under improved cotton during 1949-50 was about 52 per cent of the total. The ultimate ideal is to encourage the establishment of single variety tracts wherever agricultural conditions and the limitations of irrigation supply and soil make this possible
