The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund

The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund was founded in October, 1919, by Lord Trenchard, and its object is the relief of distress amongst past and present members of the Royal Air Force, Royal Auxiliary Air Force, Royal Air Force Reserves, Women's Royal Air Force, and their dependants.

THE FUND ASSISTS:

(a) Those disabled while flying and the dependants of those killed.

(b) Other casualties and their dependants.

(c) Sufferers on account of sickness and general distress.

The Fund exists for a service that trains as well as fights in the air and provides relief for cases arising from casualties in war as well as from flying accidents and ordinary distress in peace. It must, therefore, be prepared to render help indefinitely and not merely to meet temporary emergencies.

Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and should be sent to:

The grimmest tragedy of modern war

THE MENTALLY AND NERVE-SHATTERED DISABLED.

THE EX-SERVICES WELFARE SOCIETY was founded in 1919 and exists for men and women of all Branches of H.M. Forces, including the Merchant Navy, suffering from War Psychoses and Neuroses.

The Organisation supplements the work of the State and Local Authorities on behalf of 26,000 ex-Service men and women now in Mental Hospitals, and 120,000 other sufferers. It undertakes their general welfare in all its aspects. It maintains its own Curative Homes, and in addition an Industrial Centre where recovered patients work under sheltered conditions.

The Society receives no State aid, and is the only one that deals exclusively with ex-Service men and women suffering from this form of war wound.

Over £60,000 is required yearly to meet the minimum calls made on the Society.

PREFACE

Some occurrences notified at a date later than the beginning of November 1951, when the early pages of this edition had to go to press, could not be recorded in the body of the book; a number of these, of the most general interest, are listed in a supplement preceding the first page of the biographies. This supplement includes also lists of the names of those who, having no entry yet in the body of the book, were elected M.P.s in October 1951 and of those who received titles gazetted on 1 January 1952. The obituary on pages 34-47 includes deaths reported up to 1st January 1952.

A proof of each entry is posted to its subject every year for personal revision, but this cannot be sent unless an address is given. It should be pointed out that the numbers given of the children of a marriage are, unless otherwise indicated, those of the sons and daughters now living; also, that it is the practice to print the names of London clubs unaccompanied by the word London.

It cannot be stated too emphatically that inclusion in Who's Who has never at any time been a matter for payment or of obligation to purchase the volume.

WHAT IS VIVISECTION?

VIVISECTION means scientific experiments on living animals. Many of these experiments cause very great pain.

IT IS CLAIMED by pro-vivisectionists that animal experimentation is advancing the science of medicine. On the other hand, doctors of the highest standing and qualifications have denied this.

THE CASE against what is commonly known as vivisection is founded in the main on a very simple proposition:—That it is base and cowardly to attempt to derive some advantage from inflicting cruel suffering on dogs and other defenceless animals.

THAT PROPOSITION takes into consideration not only the suffering of the victimized creatures but the disastrous hardening of the human heart which must result from practising and tolerating cruelty.

THE EVIDENCE that vivisection is often exceedingly cruel is overwhelming. Apart from the fact that our law governing this practice explicitly sanctions the infliction of "severe pain," there is the testimony of the experimenters themselves as published in their scientific journals.

Particulars of Cruel Experiments on animals can be obtained from—

Please HELP these children!

Since its foundation in 1827, several thousand orphans of Merchant Seamen have been cared for, educated, and set up in life; and there are now over 300 boys and girls at the school, more than half of whom lost their fathers during the late war. The assured income does not meet the expenditure. New subscribers are urgently needed to bridge the gap. Please show your appreciation of our Merchant Seamen by sending donations or subscriptions to the SECRETARY, THE ROYAL MERCHANT NAVY SCHOOL, 28 St. Mary Axe, London, E.C.3

The cry is answered

Perhaps at this moment, somewhere in the world, there rises a cry of distress, prompted by despair, poverty or anxiety. It will be one among the thousands that The Salvation Army hears every day, and is determined to answer.

Regardless of creed or colour, The Salvation Army takes spiritual and material comfort to the destitute and the sick at heart and in body, relieving suffering wherever it can be found. In this great work your help is constantly needed; please send a gift to General Albert Orsborn, 101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.4.

SERVING ALL FORCES

The constant task of the British Legion is the care of all those who served and now suffer. All the year round, throughout the land, the Legion carries on indispensable benevolent work among men and women of all ranks and services and their dependants.

The Legion runs Country and Convalescent Homes that it has established in the last 30 years, and maintains Factories and Industries to employ the otherwise unemployable. It gives advice and legal aid in disputed pension cases, and conducts vital "on the spot" work through its 5000 local Service Committees.

And once every year, on Poppy Day, the Nation shares in the Legion's task with unreserved generosity. But, despite the utmost efficiency and economy in administration, the Funds derived from this annual appeal cannot alone meet costs. To maintain British Legion benevolent activities at the necessary level, individual generosity in the form of donations and legacies is at all times urgently needed.

A few deft movements with a rope—and there's a Catspaw; with such bewildering ease the sailor solves his workaday, nautical problems. But other urgent problems concerning his own and his dependants' welfare sometimes confound him. Then he needs your help. King George's Fund for Sailors, the central fund for all sea services, makes grants to over one hundred and twenty marine societies according to their needs. You help them all when you send a gift to—

The glorious wines of South Africa

Quite recently — within less than a dozen years — connoisseurs and admirers of good wine rediscovered something that had long lain dormant; the potentiality of the Union of South Africa for fine Viticulture. The fine wines and brandies specially selected and matured for the British market by the Ko-operatieve Wijnbouwers Vereniging and shipped by the South African Wine Farmers Association (London) Ltd. have a higher reputation and are more eagerly in demand than ever before.

Owing to war's aftermath these specially selected wines were temporarily in short supply, but South African sherries, brandies, vermouths and certain types of table wines of real merit are now readily available to wine lovers.

BRITISH TITLES

VALENTINE HEYWOOD

A readable and comprehensive discussion of the use and abuse of titles in the peerage, knightage, Privy Council, justiciary and the churches, by the Managing Editor of the Sunday Times. "An excellent grammar on the subject. . . . Although I thought that I knew the language almost like a native, I find from Mr. Heywood that there are many errors that I either fail to notice or might even commit myself."

THE SOCIETY
INCORPORATED ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

Founded 1885

The membership of the Society is approximately 9,000. Members are entitled to use the designation "Incorporated Accountant". Fellows use the initial letters F.S.A.A. and Associates A.S.A.A.

Admission to membership is by examination only, subject to satisfactory completion of articles of clerkship for five years (University graduates three years). Six years' approved professional service may be accepted in lieu of five years' articles.

Articles may also be integrated with full-time study at certain Universities. Under this scheme a specific University degree and the Society's qualification can be obtained in five and three-quarter years. Such graduates are exempted from the Society's Intermediate examination.

There are organisations of Incorporated Accountants in Scotland, Ireland and the Dominions, and District Societies in twenty-two centres in England and Wales and Northern Ireland.

Incorporated Accountants are not allowed to seek professional business by advertisements or circulars.

SUPPLEMENT

TO WHO'S WHO 1952

The longer interval between closing for press and publication, inevitable in present circumstances, necessitates this brief Supplement. It contains a selection of the alterations and additions too late for inclusion in the body of the book, noted up to the middle of January 1952. At the end of the Supplement a list is given of the baronet and knights gazetted on 1st January 1952, of the knight gazetted on 30 November 1951, and also of those Members of Parliament, under whose names no entries already appear in the current edition. Deaths are not included in the Supplement and will be found as usual in the Obituary on pages 34-47.

Certain changes consequent upon the death of King George VI on 6 February 1952 and the accession of Queen Elizabeth II, such as Q.C. for K.C., occurred too late for inclusion in the body of the book, but will be made in the entries concerned before the publication of the next edition.
