THE ONLY COMPLETE REFERENCE SERVICE OF BRITISH BOOKS

Weekly:

THE BOOKSELLER, with its incomparable editorial service of news and views of book trade activities, carries each week the only complete list of books as they are published. For many years past the totals of books recorded by The Bookseller have been a thousand or more titles per annum greater than have been recorded in any other book list. Additional subscriptions can now be accepted to commence almost immediately after we have received the pre-paid subscription of 25s. per annum, post free

Monthly:

THE BOOKSELLER, in the last weekly issue for each month, includes a cumulated list of books published during the month. This issue is not sold separately.

CURRENT LITERATURE contains reviews of new books and the complete list of the previous month's books, classified broadly into the groups into which they fall and indexed under the authors' names. Booksellers all over the world buy bulk supplies for distribution to their customers as a record of British book output from which to order. Bulk supplies, minimum 50 copies for 6s., and pro rata. Single subscriptions, 5s. per annum, post free

Quarterly:

The issues of WHITAKER'S CUMULATIVE BOOK LIST recording in two separate lists, the first classified under Subject, the second alphabetical under author, title and subject, all the books published during the periods January to March (three months' books), January to June (six months' books), January to September (nine months' books) and then. . . .

Annually:
